The Debs Case.

From the Toledo Blade.

The decision of the United States supreme Court in the Debs case has aroused the wrath of Governor Altgeld, of Illinois, again. He declares "the bulwark of liberty has been undermined; trial by jury has been stricken down." He asserts that this decision "marks a turning point in our history, for it establishes a new form of Government never before ernment by injunction."

What did the Supreme Court really declare? That the Government of the three months' service act, claiming United States has power to invoke the aid of civil courts to remove ob structions to interstate commerce, and that the civil courts have the right to enjoin those who obstruct such commerce.
